SENTENCE TO TAKE 1,095 BATHS

John Arti, of Cleveland, Hasn't Washed Himself in Ten Years, It Is Said

Cleveland, April 12.—Judge Fielder in police court today sentenced a man to a year and a half of cleanliness, John Arti arrested for neglecting his small children, hasn't taken a bath for ten years, humane officer Poole, told the judge.

"I have arrested him on almost every minor charge," the officer said, "and have tried for ten years to keep him clean."

"Udashed for ten years, eh?" commented the court. "I'll fix him so he won't be dirty for a long time. I shall send you to the work house with instructions to the superintendent to put you to light labor and have you scrubbed twice a day during incarceration."

It Costs Nothing

To find out for a certainty whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart; it may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flushes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve.

"About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co., asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines, and haven't been bothered with my heart since."

FIRM IN HIS PATRIOTISM.

With Usual Boast American Greeted Resurrection Day.

When a patriotic young American made his first trip abroad from Boston he took in Paris, of course, and his friends there in the American colony—and he had many—saw that he "had a good time." They showed him all the sights, took him to the Louvre, Luxembourg, Eiffel tower, etc., etc., but nothing could astonish him or excite more than a very moderate admiration. His usual comment before paintings, statuary, etc., was "Er, well, that's pretty good, but America's ahead of the world."

This became monotonous at last, and his friends resolved to stop it, if possible. They therefore gave him a dinner, and put a mild soporific in his wine, and after it had produced the desired effect they got him into a fiacre and took him to one of the underground Paris crypts, where the skeletons and bones have accumulated for centuries, and are arranged in niches in the walls; coffins are lying about, some of them empty. He was laid in one of them; a single candle was left burning, and his friends concealed themselves to await results.

In course of time the sleeper awoke, stretched, and sat up in his coffin, looking around him in some bewilderment at first. While gazing around he said at last in a meditative tone: "H'm—Resurrection morning—I'm the first one up," then he leaped from the coffin, and waving his arm shouted "America ahead of the world!"

His friends thereafter abandoned him as incurable.

WHEN THE REINDEER BALKS.

Occupants of Sledge Take Refuge Beneath Vehicle.

The little incident depicted in this arctic scene is quite a common one in that part of Russia, Norway and Sweden that is known as Lapland, says London Answers. It is quite amusing, provided you are not too intimately concerned with it.

In driving a reindeer, a single rope of reindeer skin is used as rein and whip, and to cause the animal to increase his pace the rein in swung smartly against his flank.

This being done, the reindeer may either consent to move faster, or quite as likely, he may turn sharp round and charge at the driver.

Therefore, experienced travelers use sledges that are mounted on high runners, and when the reindeer raises a protest, the travelers promptly tumble out into the snow and scramble into safety underneath their vehicle.

The reindeer, if "peppery," is not a really bad-tempered creature, and after a few prods with his horns at the sledge, it starts scraping in the snow for a mouthful of reindeer moss. Then the travelers emerge; everything is adjusted, and on they go again until "next time."

TURNED BY FOOT PEDAL.

Ingenuous Device on Ferris Wheel Intended for Children.

A Philadelphia inventor conceived the idea a few years ago of building a merry-go-round on the running gear of a wagon and in this manner securing the patronage of the children of the more densely populated portions of the large cities. The idea proved to be a happy one in every respect. The delights of a merry-go-round experience were enjoyed for a penny by hundreds of children who had never seen such a device before and who never had five cents to spend on such a dissipation, even if they had the opportunity.

A similar innovation has been recently devised in a Ferris wheel, which is portable in the same manner as the merry-go-round referred to above. The big wheel, supplied with 12 seats, is mounted on a low truck. It is partially inclosed and has a door at the side through which the little patrons pass in and out. Having been loaded with its passengers the wheel is revolved by a pedal under the foot of the operator, who is seated in front.

Since last year the coal companies of India have advanced prices nearly 100 per cent.

CATS AND THE MAN

WHY RAWLS OBJECTS TO TAKING SECOND PLACE.

Willing to Leave to All the World if He Was Justified in Taking the Drastic Action Protested Against.

Up on the West Side there is a man named Rawls, who wants to organize a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Human Beings. Rawls says such a society is urgently needed. He says there are plenty of condemned fools in the world who are wandering about the world, shedding crocodile tears over the woes of spayed and castrated cats; but when a plain, ordinary human being raises his voice in distress and cries aloud for relief the Good Samaritans pass to the other side of the street.

It was cats that were the cause of all Rawls' troubles. He had just moved into new quarters and had an elegant bedroom, into which came an abundance of air and light from the air shaft on which it was situated. He felt immensely pleased with his new place, and retired to rest the first night with a feeling of comfort and quiet.

But it was not for long. Hardly had his thoughts begun to shape themselves into fantastic dreams when a longdrawn-out caterwaul rose from the bottom of the air shaft. This was answered from the back yard, which was connected with the air shaft by an alleyway.

With a muttered curse, Rawls bounded from his bed and threw up a window, letting in a blast of raw air that made his toes curl. "Scat, you devils!" he shouted.

But a half dozen pair of green eyes merely glanced up at him in a casual fashion, and then their owners faced each other again and resumed their cursing. Closing the window in impatient rage, Rawls was creeping back to bed, when a second altercation broke out below. Hastily grabbing up an old shoe, he slammed the shoe down into the mass of moving fur. It fell with a clatter and the enemy fled.

Chuckling gleefully to himself, Rawls once more sought his bed. There was a dense silence for a time, but within an hour the walls below were as bad as ever, only this time they were around in the alley, where he could not reach them with a missile. It seemed to him the meowings continued all night, and the next morning he could not remember having slept any.

It was the same story for the several nights succeeding, and Rawls was getting wan and pale on account of lack of sleep.

Finally in his desperation he added a .22 Flobert rifle to his arsenal, and that night, when the first green-eyed marauder appeared in the air shaft, he shot him dead. He also took several other shots at long range and reduced the noise that night to a considerable extent.

He continued his warfare for several nights and was beginning to congratulate himself on being a benefactor of mankind, when early one morning, as he was dressing, there came a knock at his door and he was confronted by a low-browed individual who stated that several of the neighbors had complained that he (Rawls) was shooting their pet cats and that he must warn him to desist, else in his capacity as agent for the S. P. C. A. he would feel called upon to prosecute him for cruelty to animals!

"Cruelty to animals!" shrieked Rawls, "why, man alive!"—then he realized that this would be useless to argue with this low-browed person. He contented himself with saying he hadn't thought of it and closed the door, whereupon, it is said by his friends, that he immediately collapsed.

Rawls has moved again, and once more has recovered his accustomed geniality of temper, but there is no one of his friends who any longer dares to mention that magic combination of letters: "S. P. C. A."—New York Press.

Twins 87 Years of Age.

Twins are common enough, but it is rare indeed that the pair of them attain the age of 87 years. But in the case of Messrs. David and Jonathan Condor they have reached this age without severing their partnership. They were born in Devonport, England, in 1819, and until they reached middle age it was a matter of considerable difficulty to tell them apart; while even now, at the advanced age of 87, it is not easy to detect which is which, so great is the resemblance. They are both active, and have known but little illness.

The Music Festival in Louisville.

The music festival to be given in Louisville April 18, 19 and 20 will be the biggest event of its kind ever given in the South. The drill hall of the big First Regiment Army has been engaged for the festival, and the auditorium will have a seating capacity of 4,200. Walter Damrosch, conductor of the great New York Symphony Orchestra, will be the conductor for the festival and has prepared a program for the five concerts that will appear to all classes of music lovers. Madame Marcella Sembrich will be the principal soloist and she will sing at the final concert, Saturday night, April 20. Other soloists engaged for the festival are Madame Hissem de Noss, Alice Soveroign, Miss Corneille Overstreet, William Harper, Kelley Cole, Ellison Van Hoose, Alexander Saslavsky, Leon Leroy, Leo Schulz and Francis Hachillen. All railroads have granted reduced rates for the festival.

Five women were chosen as county treasurer in Idaho at the recent election and seventeen women as county superintendents of schools.
